Trinity Sunday

31 May 2026

Welcome

Hello and welcome to worship this morning. We extend a special welcome to all visitors joining us today. May your time of worship be truly blessed.

If you are a visitor or newcomer to our church, please contact us at office@gladstoneuniting.org.au if you have any questions or if we can be of assistance.

O blessed Trinity, in whom we know the Maker of all things seen and unseen,
the Savior of all both near and far:
By your Spirit enable us so to worship
your divine majesty, that with all the company of heaven
we may magnify your glorious name, saying:
Holy, holy, holy.
Glory to you, O Lord most high.
Amen.

Our Vision is for the Gladstone Region to be a community where everyone experiences the transforming love of Jesus.

On The Eighth Day, We Completed Creation: And It Was Perfect

Based on Genesis 1:1 – 2:4a – Creation unfolds through ordered speech, yet humanity is placed into an unfinished world with responsibility.

The slogan stood over the harbour in letters taller than the old lighthouse ruins beneath it.

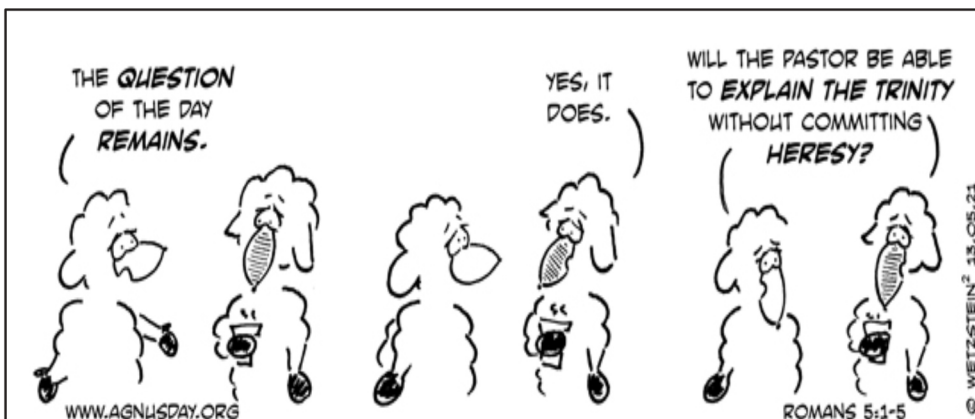

ON THE EIGHTH DAY WE COMPLETED CREATION: AND IT WAS PERFECT

The words shimmered across the seawall in white light while the tide rolled in beneath the concrete flood barriers. No waves crashed anymore. They arrived exactly as scheduled, measured to the millimetre by the Pacific Stabilisation Grid. Even the gulls had disappeared years ago after being classified as ecological disruptors for repeatedly interfering with agricultural drone corridors. Children now learned about birds through archived simulations in school, where they also studied the Before Times: the centuries of rising oceans, collapsing ice shelves, endless migration wars, salt-poisoned farmland, and cities that vanished beneath cyclones powerful enough to redraw coastlines overnight. Humanity had nearly died from unpredictability. That was the phrase every child knew. Unpredictability. The old world had not failed because people lacked intelligence or compassion. It had failed because nature itself was unstable. Storms arrived without warning. Rivers ignored borders. Heat waves swallowed entire nations. Crops collapsed because insects migrated unexpectedly, or rain came two weeks too late. Humanity had survived only when it finally accepted the obvious truth: creation was unfinished.

PRAYER FOR TRINITY SUNDAY

Father, Son and Holy Spirit, animate our living.
Help us to forget ourselves, to get caught up in the mystery of your love and life. Let us never forget the need to care for the good of others.
Never let us take for granted the mystery of life.
