CALL TO WORSHIP

Come and worship the God of all creation

I will sing to the LORD all my life and celebrate my God with music as long as I live.

Come and worship the God who gave you breath

May my meditation please the LORD,
as I have delighted in the LORD God.

Bless the LORD, O my soul.

Hallelujah!

Let us worship God

PRAYER OF INVOCATION

Gracious and all powerful God, we open our hearts and our minds to you that you may enter in. Bless us in this time of worship with your holy presence. Help us let go of all anxiety and worry. Support us with your loving arms and help us to lift up our voices in praise and thanksgiving. Pour out your spirit upon us that we might love you more purely and be able to bring your grace and your compassion, your power and your truth, and your joy and your peace to our suffering world. We ask it in and through Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

PRAYER OF ADORATION AND CONFESSION (from Psalm 104:1-9)

Great and gracious Lord God
arrayed in glory and majesty,
we praise you and bless you.

Creating God,
you stretched out the heavens like a tent
and set your dwelling place over the water
You are carried on the clouds, and on the wings of the wind;
the winds are your messengers, and flaming fire your servants.

You set the earth on its foundations,
never to be moved.
The deep waters covered even the mountains,
but at your voice they fled,
coming to rest where you had appointed,
beyond the boundary you set,
never to cover the earth again.

Bless the LORD, O my soul.
O LORD, my God, you are very great.
Your works are many and varied
and in wisdom you have made everything.

Loving God,
in our human condition you know who we are, and what we are;
you know our awkwardness with ourselves, with each other,
and with you.

(a time of silence)

Help our unbelief;
give us the boldness, by the presence of your Spirit,
to believe in your possibilities for us,
in Jesus' name. Amen.

DECLARATION OF FORGIVENESS

Jesus Christ came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life in exchange for those held hostage by sin.
Having been designated by God a high priest,
he makes sacrifice for our sins
and thus becomes the source of eternal salvation.

Thanks be to God. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

God of eternity, who laid the foundations of the universe, in whose hand the cosmos evolves through matter pregnant with consciousness, we give You thanks for life's beauty, for radiant sunsets, erupting volcanoes, for waters still and turbulent, for sacred mountains and peaceful gardens and all the fecundity of Earth's womb.

We praise You for all human life, for humanity's diversity and differences, for the rich texture of colour, creed and culture, for the treasure of human love, for friends, family and loved ones, for the heartfelt joy and meaning they bring to us and for the opportunities of caring and be cared for. Above all, we thank You for the revelation of Yourself in the rabbi from Nazareth, in the mystic narratives of Scripture, in the Spirit dwelling within each of us. Holy God, You are everything, all in all: You are in us and we are in You.

We pray for those whose life is marred or diminished by prejudice or poverty. May we know and feel the pain and suffering of others; guide us to all that we can do to help. Help us to live as children of the Father, sisters and brothers who, with the eyes of faith, see all people as bearers of God's image, temples in which the Sacred dwells. May we be at peace with ourselves, live in a spirit of humility, and deal with others, even those who oppose us, with gentleness, honesty and respect. Teach us dialogue, not conflict.

We pray for our leaders, government ministers, and all who serve our country, city and community: grant them wisdom, that they may seek justice in all things, compassion, that they help those suffering from disease, and just, helping the most vulnerable.

We pray for all peacemakers, for peoples and lands divided, for families – and children – suffering because of war. May there be a spirit of compromise, an abandonment of ego, that lust for power and domination, help all embroiled in conflict to see and cherish the humanity of others, see the Divine spark in the eyes of others.

This morning, we pray especially for...

Eternal Father, we pray for those whose life is blighted by loneliness, for those who are facing possible bad news, for those who are anxious or hurting, unable to sleep, who find little comfort, for those who are dying, and for the bereaved.

These prayers we offer in Jesus' Name. Amen.

WORD OF MISSION AND BENEDICTION (see below)

HOLY COMMUNION: Pentecost 21 Year B

It is indeed right to give you our thanks and praise, O God,
for you alone know the secrets of the universe
and you alone know who is to be honoured in glory.

You set the earth on its foundations
and filled it with wonderful creatures.
Your creative power is beyond our comprehension
and your purposes in the world can only be glimpsed.

Yet you have come among us in your Son, Jesus Christ.
He came as a servant of all
and laboured and prayed with us for the release of all who are held hostage to sin and death.

When tyrants rose against him,
he drank the cup of suffering
and was plunged into the baptism of death,
but you raised him to new life
and designated him a high priest forever,
making him the source of eternal salvation
for us and all who respond to your gracious call.

And so we praise you...

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

WORD OF MISSION AND BENEDICTION

Go now with the words of your high priest in your ears:

“You are a forgiven people.”

Though Christ has welcomed you to his table,
do not lord it over others.

Strive not to be served, but to serve,
and pray, with cries and tears, for the salvation of all.

And may the grace...
